

The Buninyong and District Community Association is the successor of several earlier community and resident groups in Buninyong and district which had been active in discussing and taking action on local issues; where appropriate making submissions to local State and national authorities; and promoting the well-being and quality of life of the Buninyong community.

Some Projects and Achievements of the Association

- Advocate long term for traffic safety through Buninyong
- Establish, seek funding for and work on local community projects such as the Off-lead Dog Park and “Neil’s Walk”, a trail from DeSoza Park to Union Jack Creek
- Contribute to local planning decisions and consultations eg the Buninyong Streetscape, signage identifying historical sites, entry signs etc
- Host local “Meet the Candidates” events pre-elections
- Auspice and support the Village Voice--Buninyong & District Community News
